

Minor Inappropriate Behaviour	Definition
Evil eye- facials/ body language	Squinting the eyes and focussing on you and pouting the mouth.
Unnecessary noises	Tapping, humming, burping, farting, yawning (manners)
Calling out/ not putting up hands	When the teacher is talking, calling out the answer without putting up their hands (sometimes when they have their hand up) and waiting to be asked.
Put downs	Making a statement about someone that is negative. Laughing when someone gets the answer wrong.
Swinging on chairs	Leaning back or forward on the chair. The four legs of the chair are not touching the ground at the same time.
Lateness	Arriving to class after the second bell. Arriving to class before the second bell, but leaving again and not being set up and ready to work by the second bell.
Talking when others are talking	When a student or teacher is talking, carrying on a conversation with someone else.
Non attending	Not physically present in class. Talking to someone outside of the classroom. Daydreaming.
Arguing back	When given an instruction or comment, responding negatively or sarcastically.
Students wandering in/out/ around	Leaving the class, without checking with the teacher if they can.
Misusing ICT equipment	Going on sites that are not relevant to the topic being taught. Using proxy websites to bypass internet filtering. Chatting on google chat. Sitting on the couches with the screen facing the wall and not at a table. Emailing family or friends during class time.
Not being organised	Not having the right equipment for that class or not having done required prior tasks.
Not following instructions	When the teacher asks the class, or a student to do something at or by a certain time, either the student(s) do not do the task, or delays the task (too wordy).
Taking other people's equipment	Not asking to borrow equipment before taking it.
Blaming others	When the teacher makes a comment because they have seen a student talking or not on task, the first response should not be it wasn't me.

Consequence Flow Chart – MINOR

