

For the Teachers

Dear Teachers,

Thank you,

For supplying students with stimulating schoolwork, Scintillating syllabuses and spectacular scholastics,

When instead you could lounge around with a mug of coffee,

A box of chocolates,

A book,

Thank you,

For diligently diversifging with dreaded desktop data,

Dispelling doldrums and dispatching diversions,

When instead you could linger in the garden with a flower,

A bee,

A bird,

You are the gatekeepers warding off boredom,

So on behalf of students throughout Kerikeri,

New Zealand,

And the World,

Thank you,

Sincerely,

Charissa Miles
